

Senator

EDGAR HENRIQUES.

Henriques is known for integrity of character and good business ability. He is manager of the Lucy Peabody Estate and other trusts and carries a real estate business. He will make a safe, conservative Senator and support the Proar administration.

Senator

JOHN HUGHES.

John Hughes has lived in the islands twenty years and has been a staunch Republican ever since the party was organized. "Honest John" is a cognomen he has earned by fair play in his public and private life. Hughes was a member of the first Republican Executive Committee in the islands. He served the public well and faithfully in the last Legislature and his high civic ideals and faithful attention to duty should assure his election for a Senator next Tuesday with a big majority.

Senator

E. W. QUINN.

As a Representative in the last Legislature Quinn was author of the excellent Sunday Law and has proved himself to be an able and faithful legislator. Mr. Quinn is a strong party worker and popular with all classes. He was born at Bernicia, Cal., and has resided in Honolulu over nine years. He is a plumb-trade and he deserves the support especially of the mechanic, laboring man and business man.

Representative 4th Dis.

A. D. CASTRO.

A. D. Castro came to the islands when three years old. He was educated in Hawaii's schools and has been following a business career since he was 18 years old. Castro is popular among the people. He is president of Fraternal Societies and was a member of the last Legislature, having been Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture.
